2017/024	Cllr Mike Kelly Training Session Cllr Mike Kelly introduced himself and asked Cllrs to wear an eye mask whilst he discussed his background, his career and the way he hopes to be able to interact in meetings. He discussed the following ways we can help: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bear with him to get into swing of things and make sure he has what he needs • Introductions round the room at the beginning of meetings. We will add verbal introductions onto the agenda. • Agenda items read upturn with the numbers • Training courses - get a lift with another councillor. Guidance and escorting, will take your left elbow and walk a little bit behind • When at functions - assist and stay with Mike • Will get to know people's voices, in the meantime can you say your name • Avoid non-verbal communication such as nodding when Mike speaking • Chair to note when Mike wishes to speak Questions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •How distracting are noises? Can work with them •IT files that you can't cope with? Tables, Images, Diagrams. Ordinary text or word documents are best (JD will look at report format) 	Clerk
2017/025	Verbal Introductions Everyone introduced themselves, also the members of public in attendance (3)

2017/026	Declarations of Interest & Applications for Dispensations There were no declarations of interest or applications for dispensations
2017/027	Statement from the Mayor Cllr Jonathan Duckworth made the following statement: On Monday 22nd May and on Saturday last week terrorists attacked members of the public, killing and injuring many people. There have been national periods of silence for these events, but we have not yet expressed our views. I hope that council supports me in condemning these attacks, offering condolences to those bereaved, and our best wishes to the injured. In addition, in thanking the emergency services for their exceptional work in dealing with these events.
2017/028	Matters of Urgency Cllr Sally Millett expressed concern that on one of the Recreation & Amenities reports a recommendation has already been made before the item has been discussed. Cllr Robert Maitland said this can be helpful to help speed up the process. Cllr Millett said she could understand it at Full Council but not on a committee report.
