

Nailsworth Town Council

Induction Procedure

1. Introduction

All new employees should undertake an induction programme to help them understand their role and their responsibilities and how they contribute to the Council's success.

The Clerk will take responsibility for the induction being carried out.

A programme for the first day is important and should include:

- A meeting with the Clerk & line manager
- Introduction to work colleagues
- A meeting with the Chair of the Personnel Committee
- Matters such as health & safety, provision of keys, etc
- Meeting the council members should be scheduled into the programme on a soon as is practical basis. It is important to strike a balance between overloading a new employee with too much information and leaving them feeling neglected and abandoned.

2. The Induction Process

Irrespective of the new employee's job level he/she should be familiarised as quickly as possible with the function, policies and procedures within the Council. This is achieved through discussions with key members of staff and the completion of the full induction programme and checklist, see Appendices 1 and 2.

Completed induction programmes and checklists should be passed to the line manager for inclusion on the employee's personal file.

The line manager will agree what the new team member needs to know to be able to fulfil her/his role, along with an estimated time plan. They will also agree who is best equipped to carry out the various parts of the induction programme.

An induction checklist detailing areas to be covered within the first month of employment can be found in Appendix 1. Information is relevant to all new employees and can, and should, be tailored to the joiner's exact requirements.

The Clerk and line manager will discuss:

- The exact nature of the employee's role (with reference to their job description)
- The Council's commitment to employee development
- Health & Safety matters on the induction checklist as well as the Council's Health & Safety Policy requirements which identify that employees have a responsibility to co-operate with their line manager in order to ensure a healthy, safe workplace and to take care of themselves and others.
- Fundamental details of the work place e.g. fire procedures, facilities, first aid, security and keys.
